&

WEST OSO HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER

MS. CASSANDRA ROBERTSON

HAVE BEEN SELECTED AS HONOREES FOR THE
WOMEN IN EDUCATION AWARDS 2024
BY THE EDUCATION SERVICE CENTER REGION 2

West Oso ISD is pleased to announce Ms. Shirley Jordan, Board Trustee and Ms. Cassandra Robertson, West Oso High School Teacher have been selected as honorees for the Women in Education Awards 2024 by the Education Service Center Region 2. Ms. Jordan and Ms. Robertson will be recognized at a banquet on Thursday, March 28, 2024 at 6:00 pm at the Omni Corpus Christi Hotel.

Ms. Shirley Jordan, West Oso ISD Board Trustee has served continuously on the West Oso ISD Board of Trustees since 1986. In her 39 years of service, Ms. Jordan has served in the capacity of School Board President and Board Trustee. Ms. Jordan brings to the board her knowledge and experience in early childhood education operating an early childhood daycare center. She has a passionate commitment to serving the students, staff, and community. This commitment comes from her strong faith and love of the community that she serves. In addition, Ms. Jordan has always been a strong advocate for our district athletic programs promoting the importance and benefits of incorporating sports and physical education into the educational curriculum. Ms. Jordan not only volunteers her time as a Board Trustee but also as a volunteer in the concession stands during athletic events. You often will see Ms. Jordan cheering on the students of West Oso ISD at football, basketball, and volleyball games. Her experience and plethora of knowledge as a longtime resident makes her an invaluable asset to the district.

Ms. Cassandra Robertson, West Oso High School Science Teacher, has been teaching at West Oso ISD for ten years. She first began teaching at West Oso Junior High School and then moved on to West Oso High School. Ms. Robertson has demonstrated exceptional dedication, creativity, and passion in teaching, making a significant impact on students' understanding and appreciation of science. She completed her Master's Degree in Curriculum and Instruction in December 2023 from Texas A&M University Corpus Christi. Ms. Robertson possess an innate ability to connect with students and inspire a love for learning that is unparalleled. Through innovative teaching methods and hands-on experiments, Ms. Robertson has made complex scientific concepts accessible and exciting for students. She not only focuses on academic achievement but also encourages critical thinking, curiosity, and problem-solving skills, which are essential for success in and out of the classroom. Ms. Robertson embodies the qualities of an outstanding educator, great leader, and a commitment to the students of West Oso ISD.

Superintendent Kimberly Moore said, "We value Ms. Jordan for her passion and dedication to the West Oso ISD Board of Trustees. She has demonstrated integrity and an unwavering support for our students and this community." "Ms. Cassandra Robertson has not just taught lessons; she has ignited curiosity, encouraged dreams, and has demonstrated what it means to make a true difference in the lives of our students." added Superintendent Moore. "Congratulations Ms. Jordan & Ms. Robertson! We are OSO Proud!"
